Jennings Hood, Esq.
Messrs. Bailey, Banks and Biddle
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Hood:

We have learned from Messrs. Dieges & Clust that it would be possible for us to obtain a copy of the New York Society Military and Naval Officer-ers World War medal through your firm. We are very desirous of adding this medal to our Cabinet, and if we are unable to obtain one from you, would you be so kind as to advise us as to where to apply.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Mr. Hood:

Thank you very much indeed for the badge of the Woman's Committee for the Sesquicentennial which you so kindly sent as a gift to the Society the other day. We are very glad to have this. Mr. Gillingham had spoken of it to us, and I was on the point of writing you to see if we could obtain a specimen, but you got ahead of us!

We greatly appreciate your thought for us.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Wood:

Your letter of the 19th is received in which you acknowledge receipt of the badge of the Women's Committee of the Sesqui-Centennial. There should have been a note accompanying this badge that it was purchased by and forwarded at the direction of Mr. Harold Gillingham.

Am enclosing another badge of the Auxilliary Committee, which may be of interest.

The sculptor is now at work on the official award for the Sesqui-Centennial and I am looking forward to seeing something of a high order. The name of the sculptor engaged was communicated to me confidentially: otherwise would tell you who is doing the work.

Cordially yours,

Enclosure.

Gentlemen:

Would you be good enough to get us the address of George Devreese of Belgium who designed the medal of Brand Whitlock and Herbert Hoover, and possibly you know the name of the medalist who struck the medals named above. If so we would very much appreciate your letting us have the addresses. Also please furnish us with the address of M. Schulman of Amsterdam.

Dear Sir:

The address of Godefrid Devreese is Boulevard
Lambermond 134, Brussels, Belgium.

We do not know who struck the medals of Whitlock and Hoover that Devreese designed.

The address of M. Schulman is Keisersgracht 448, Amsterdam, Netherlands.

My dear Mr. Wood:-

Please let me know if I can obtain a suplicate of the Lincoln medal by POINE
of the oblong shape?

I have a party who is interested and we would like to quote them the price for one of these medals. Will appreciate the courtesy of an early response.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

In examining my collection of medals,
I note an omission of the Ter-Centenary medal of the founding of New York.

Was this issued by your Society and is a copy obtainable? If so, I would appreciate your sending it and will promptly remit.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

The Ter-Centenary medal of the founding of New York, was issued by the Committee in charge, and the medal was made by Tiffany. We had nothing to do with it. The important one is three inches and the badge is $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches; a small popular one is $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches. Dr. George F. Kunz of Tiffany, presented us with all of these and I think he was largely instrumental in getting them out. If you would care to do so, you might write to him and if there are any available he might let one go.

Very truly yours,

Curator.

Dear Mr. Noe:

You probably noted in the November copy of the Numismatist where this Association has brought out a pocket piece inscribed with the words Lucky Tillicum, Rebuild with Roosevelt on the obverse with his portrait in the center.

Would you be good enough to let us know whether there could be any possibly objection raised to the similarity of this pocket piece with coinage. We are especially interested with regard to the $10.00 gold piece as we understand this is the same size as the Tillicum.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hood:

Mr. Noe has asked me to reply to your letter. To begin with I cannot say what interpretation the secret service would put on your lucky pieces. I, however, cannot see where they could challenge them, especially as they have smooth edges, not reeded or lettered. Although they are the size of a $10.00 gold piece they do not have any value or say United States of America and I think they will get by without challenge.

Very truly yours,

Do you have record of medals struck in England. Is it possible one may have been done to Commemorate Treaty.

Mr. Jennings Hood

Philadelphia, Penna.

Dear Mr. Hood:

As far as we know our government has never struck a medal to John M. Clayton nor in commemoration of the Clayton Bulwer Treaty. We have looked through the list of government/^{medals}and find nothing. We have nothing concerning Bulwer or the Treaty issued in England. There is no list of books of modern English medals so we cannot tell if any such medal was struck.

Very truly yours,
